Course details

Introduction

The level 3 award in health and safety in the workplace qualification covers:

- + The legal framework relating to health and safety at work
- + The main causes of injuries and ill health at work
- + Safety management systems
- + The costs associated with accidents and ill health
- + The benefits of risk assessment and the different types available
- + Understanding workplace hazards and minimising ill health and injuries
- + Managing the effects of accidents and incidents in the workplace

Who should attend?

The qualification is intended for those already working as supervisors, managers, team leaders or who are preparing to start work at this level.

Duration and expected self-study time

The course is delivered over three days. The recommended learning time is 30 hours (dependent on your learning style and pace). This includes self-study, guided learning exercises and tutor-led sessions.

Course information

Delegates will be provided with the following resources:

- + A textbook (Health and Safety for Supervisors and Managers)
- + An exercise book (A Question of Health and Safety Level 3)
- + A notebook

Assessment

A multiple-choice examination containing 60 questions that must be completed within 120 minutes. The pass mark is 40 (66%). A Merit will be achieved with a score of 50 (83%) or above.

All delegates who complete the learning programme and pass the examination will be issued with a certificate.

Training venue

Courses will usually be provided at the client premises. We also offer open courses at venues across the UK. Please contact support@saeker.co.uk for further information.

Training venue requirements

A secure training room with power, a table for the trainer, TV / projector and screen, flip chart and table space with sufficient physical distancing between delegates. The room should be in a horseshoe / board room style. On the afternoon of the third day, the room will need to be rearranged into an examination style and a clock should be visible.

Most venues can provide basic refreshments. This will be agreed prior to the course.

Cost

The course cost is £4,000 and includes all course materials and the examination

The minimum number of delegates on each course is 8 and the maximum is 16. Please contact support@saeker.co.uk for further information.
